

Bloom Phi Sigs Promote ...

- SISTERHOOD — We support the lifelong development of our sisters, as well as women's causes. And we value socializing and networking with great people — on campus or off!
- SERVICE — In addition to raising funds for the National Kidney Foundation, we also share our time and talents assisting many philanthropies in the greater Bloomsburg area.
- LEADERSHIP — We plan and participate in events that boost skills, confidence and success.
- SCHOLARSHIP — We're focused on education first. That's why we're in college, after all!

Our sisters have fun raising funds for programs that help advance womanhood through personal growth, intellectual development and selfless giving.

MINIMUM STANDARDS OF SISTERHOOD

To be a Phi Sigma Sigma, are you:

- A student in good standing at Bloomsburg University?
- Serious about your scholastic endeavors and future achievement?
- Able to maintain at least a 2.5 GPA?
- Willing to learn the history of Phi Sigma Sigma and all that we stand for?
- Involved in two extracurricular activities? (Work also counts.)
- Able to meet financial obligations for local and national dues? (For more information, contact our Membership Recruitment Chair below.)
- Prepared to attend weekly meetings each Sunday, as well as participate in social, philanthropic and other chapter activities?
- Able to live in the Phi Sigma Sigma house for no less than one year?
- Willing to serve on two chapter committees?
- Someone who respects herself and others, behaving professionally and maturely?
- Interested in contributing to the world around you through volunteer service and leadership?
- Someone who likes to have fun?
- A "people person" who likes networking and meeting others?

'The brotherhood of man and the alleviation of the world's pain ...'

These are the "Twin Ideals" that Phi Sigma Sigma sisters have embraced since 1913, the year that 10 civic-minded, conscientious college women founded this illustrious "Greek" organization in New York.

Today, throughout the world, thousands of women proudly call themselves "Phi Sigs," especially the sisters of Bloomsburg University's Epsilon Zeta Chapter.

Founded locally in October 1988, our chapter is one of the top Greek organizations on campus — maintaining one of the highest cumulative GPAs and drawing increasing numbers of women each term.

That's because our members share a deep commitment to sisterhood, service, leadership and scholarship — values that endure long after your college years are fond memories.

Our motto: "Once a Phi Sigma Sigma, always a Phi Sigma Sigma!"

We Make a Difference!

In addition to helping prepare young women to achieve even greater success in their collegiate, professional and personal lives, we're also actively involved in our communities.

Bloomsburg Phi Sigs can be found:

- raising thousands of dollars for breast cancer research by walking 60 miles in The Susan G. Komen Breast Cancer Foundation's "3 Day" event
- assisting families in need during the holidays
- donating their time to worthy causes like Alex's Lemonade Stand and diabetes prevention
- learning from alumnae in job-shadowing and career-mentor opportunities, and
- making a difference in the world every day!

Join Our Dynamic Sisterhood!

Interested in becoming a Phi Sigma Sigma? We're always looking for outstanding young women who share our values and want to make the most of their lives!

Phi Sigs are individuals who share a common bond — and remain friends long after college years are over. That's why we're in contact with more than 2/3s of all sisters since 1988!
